INTRODUCTION

The "Antiphon"—or responsive service—has come to be a regular part of the worship in so many non-liturgical churches that it is in response to numerous requests from ministers, organists, and choirmasters that this Collection is issued.

The "Antiphon" consists of passages of Scripture read by the minister—or the congregation—and responses sung by the choir, all related to one central thought. Passages from the Old and the New Testaments are combined; the Prophecies are joined with the records of their fulfilment in Christ; the needs of the soul are voiced together with the promises of their satisfaction. Settings of sacred poems as well as of Biblical texts, short sections from Oratorios, and spiritual folksongs, are found among the responses.

The "Antiphon" may effectively follow directly upon the reading of the Gospel, so that the minister's sentence, "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear" serves to introduce it. Immediately, the organist begins to play softly the music of the first response, or a restrained improvisation on its theme; he thus accompanies the reading of the minister as well as the singing of the choir. It is, of course, of the utmost importance to learn what volume of tone and variations of tone color to employ in accompanying the reading, that its beauty and significance may be accentuated, not obscured.

By following attentively, the organist can pass without any break from his improvisation into the accompaniment of the choir upon its entrance. It has been found effective to sing certain responses, and especially the final response, without accompaniment.

Besides beautifying and enriching our worship, the "Antiphon" may be a distinct aid in bringing about greater unity in a service, as the Scripture readings with their responses may be chosen either to suggest or to fit into the central idea of each particular service. It also brings the minister or the congregation and the choir into closer touch as they consciously coöperate in this act of worship.

With but few exceptions the Choral responses in any "Antiphon," joined together, will form an effective anthem. The usefulness of this book is, therefore, not limited to the Antiphonal Service; it has already proved valuable as an Anthem Book. Sections of the "Antiphons" may also be used as separate responses in various parts of the service.

The "Antiphons" are classified, as far as possible, according to their appropriateness to special occasions, or to the seasons of the Church year, such as Thanksgiving, Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter; but almost all of them are perfectly suitable for use at any service.

MINISTER: God is jealous and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth and is furious; the Lord will take vengeance on His adversaries, and He reserveth wrath for His enemies. The Lord is slow to anger and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: the mountains quake at Him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at His presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein. Who can stand before His indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of His anger? The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knoweth them that trust in Him.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. MINISTER: Jesus said: They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. I am come, not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost. Wherefore He is able to save them to the uttermost that come to God by Him.

THE WAITING CHRIST.

MINISTER: Ye are not come unto the mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness and darkness and tempest, and to the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words;

But ye are come unto Mount Sion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels, and to the general assembly of the church of the first born, which are written in heaven; and unto God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect; and to Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant. See that ye refuse not Him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused Him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from Him that speaketh from heaven.

The musical score is written for a Bass Solo and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of B-flat major (three flats) and 4/4 time. The tempo is marked 'Largo' with a quarter note equal to 56 beats. The score is divided into two systems. The first system begins with a Bass Solo marked 'p' (piano). The lyrics 'Be - hold, I stand at the door and knock,... and' are written below the bass line. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the lyrics 'knock, I stand and knock. If an - y man hear my voice...'. The piano accompaniment continues with similar chordal textures.

MINISTER: Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love.

 And with the treas - ures of His grace, To en - rich the hum - ble poor.
 And heav'n's e - ter - nal arch - es ring With Thy be - lov - ed Name.

MINISTER: The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart: Be strong, fear not.

CHOIR:

He comes, the broken heart to bind,
 The bleeding soul to cure:
 And with the treasures of His grace
 To enrich the humble poor.

MINISTER: And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek, and his rest shall be glorious. And in that day thou shalt say: O Lord, I will praise Thee. Behold, God is my salvation; the Lord Jehovah is my strength, and my song; He is also become my salvation. Sing unto the Lord, for He hath done excellent things; this is known in all the earth. Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion; for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHOIR:

Our glad Hosannas, Prince of Peace,
 Thy welcome shall proclaim:
 And heaven's eternal arches ring
 With Thy beloved Name.

And I saw in the night visions, and behold one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought Him near before Him. "THY BONDS, O SON OF GOD."

CHRIST A SACRIFICE FOR US.

MINISTER: The Lord hath made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of God.

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from Him; He was despised and we esteemed Him not. Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

MINISTER: And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying: neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write; for these words are true and faithful. And he said unto me, It is done; I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

GOD'S RESTORING GRACE.

MINISTER: When the Lord shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His glory. He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer. This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which He created shall praise the Lord. For He hath looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from heaven did the Lord behold the earth, to hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death; to declare the name of the Lord in Zion and His praise in Zion.

MINISTER: Comfort ye, comfort ye, my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of one that crieth in the wilderness: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough places plain. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall He come forth unto me that is to be the ruler in Israel: whose goings forth have been of old, from everlasting.

MINISTER: Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they entered in and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments; and as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here; for He is risen.

If the spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by the Spirit that dwelleth in you. And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by His own power.

MINISTER: Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over Him.

Jesus said to His disciples: "A little while and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. In my Father's house are many mansions; I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am, there ye may be also."

For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus; who shall change our vile body that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body. And God is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light.

MINISTER: The Lord hath appeared as of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee. MINISTER: Hearken unto me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord. For the Lord shall comfort Zion; He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord. Joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving and the voice of melody. Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. For I, even I, am He that comforteth you.

CHOIR: Yea, I will comfort you, as one whom his own mother comforteth.

MINISTER: I will mention the loving kindness of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord: according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His loving kindnesses. For He said, Surely ye are My people, children that will not lie. So He was their Saviour. In all their afflictions He was afflicted, and the angel of His

CHOIR:

Where heavenly pasture grows,
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.

MINISTER: And Jesus said: How think ye? If a man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? Even so the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

MINISTER: Jesus said unto the people: All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. A stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers. But he that is an hireling and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep and am known of mine.

CHOIR:

In spite of all my foes,
Thou dost my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows,
And joy exalts my head.

MINISTER: And Jesus saith: Other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring; and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd. And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

CHOIR:

"LORD, HAVE MERCY UPON US."

GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

MINISTER: Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments: keep therefore, and do them; for this is your wisdom, and your understanding in the sight of the nations. And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children; and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. If ye hearken to these judgments, and keep and do them, He will love thee, and bless thee and multiply thee. MINISTER: Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment; and the second is like unto it: thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

CHOIR: Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep Thy law.

MINISTER: Owe no man anything, but to love one another; for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. If a man love me he will keep my words.

How think ye, if any man have an hundred sheep and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine and go into the mountains and seek that which goeth astray? MINISTER: Save me, O God, for the waters are come into my soul; I sink in deep mire where there is no standing; I am come into the deep waters where the floods overflow me. I am weary of my crying; my throat is dried; mine eyes fail while I wait for my God. Hear me, O God, for Thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me, according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies. Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it; hide not my face from me, for I am in trouble.

CHOIR: As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about His people.

MINISTER: Unto Thee lift I up mine eyes, O Thou that dwellest in the heavens. If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, then the waters had overwhelmed us; the stream had gone over our soul; then the proud waters had gone over our soul. Our help is in the Lord, who made heaven and earth. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth forever.

CHOIR: As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about His people from henceforth forevermore.

"LO, MY SOUL WAITETH STILL ON GOD."

TRUST.

MINISTER: In Thee, O God, do I hope; Thou wilt hear, O Lord my God. I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: Thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God. The Lord will command His loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

CHOIR: RESPONSE I.

Moderato.
Soprano and Alto. Dickinson.

Lo!..... my soul wait-eth still on God! He will help.

Tenor and Bass.

MINISTER: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.

CHOIR: RESPONSE II.

All ye peo - ple, trust in God, tell un - to the Lord all your grief.

MINISTER: For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

MINISTER: Thou, O Lord, remainest forever: Thy throne is established of old; Thou art from everlasting. How great are His signs! And how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation. The counsel of the Lord standeth forever; the thoughts of His heart to all generations. Forever, O Lord, Thy word is settled in heaven; Thou art the same, and Thy years shall have no end.

To us there is but one God, the Father, by whom are all things, and we by Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by Him. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.
